Sawah Berundak di Jatiluwih, Tabanan - Bali

TABANAN is a regency in Bali Province, Indonesia, located in the western part of the island of Bali. This regency is known for its beautiful rice terraces, temples, and cultural heritage.

One of the most famous attractions in Tabanan is the Jatiluwih rice terraces, which are recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. These rice terraces offer stunning views of Bali's natural beauty, and are a popular destination for tourists.

Tabanan is also home to several important temples, such as Pura Tanah Lot, Pura Taman Ayun, and Pura Ulun Danu Bratan. Pura Tanah Lot is a temple located on a rock formation in the middle of the sea, and is one of Bali's most famous tourist icons. Pura Taman Ayun is a temple located in the village of Mengwi, which is known for its beautiful gardens and architecture. Pura Ulun Danu Bratan is a temple located on the edge of Lake Bratan, and is a popular spot for photography.

In addition to its natural and cultural attractions, Tabanan is also home to several beaches, such as Soka Beach and Medewi Beach. Soka Beach is a black sand beach with beautiful sunsets, while Medewi Beach is a popular destination for surfers.

Tabanan is also known for its agricultural products such as coffee, cloves, and cacao. Visitors can learn about traditional farming practices and sample local products at places like Bali Pulina Agro Tourism.

Tabanan is a great destination for travelers looking for a mix of natural beauty, cultural heritage, and beach activities. It offers a more laid-back atmosphere compared to some of Bali's more bustling areas, making it a great place to relax and unwind. (Destinasi)
